

Cassandra Freeman

cfreeman11@fordham.edu (<mailto:cfreeman11@fordham.edu>)

718-817-1000

Classes Taught

Collaboration

About

Actress and comedian Cassandra Freeman, best known for her co-starring roles as Denzel Washington's love interest in Inside Man and in Chris Rock's I think I Love My Wife, she has also performed Off Broadway at the Signature Theatre in August Wilson's Seven Guitars directed by Ruben Santiago-Hudson the creator of the HBO movie hit Lakawana Blues, the Guthrie Theatre production of Intimate Apparel, and performed in the world wide phenomenal play Vagina Monologues along side Jane Fonda and Rosie Perez. Ms. Freeman has appeared in several TV shows including Shark, and Numbers.

Other films to see her in next year is a Morgan Freeman movie called the Wish Wizard, How We Got Away with It, and Break of Dawn. Additionally, her current film to be released this November is the Sundance Film Festival 2011 World Cinema Audience Award winning movie Kinyarwanda. Kinyarwanda was filmed in Rwanda, Africa and is the inspiration for her creating a non profit called the Cassandra Arts Project, whose mission is to bring arts and empowerment to young women in Rwanda, Africa and around the world.

She is a graduate of Florida State University and received her MFA from NYU's Tisch School of the Arts.